DEDICATION

To the students and faculty of the Chesaning High School we dedicate this 1946 issue of the Indian. We appreciate the efforts of all who have assisted us in making this annual a success. We especially wish to thank Mrs. Ellis for her untiring efforts and Mr. Dietzel for his counsel in the organization of the book. Without the assistance of these advisors this annual would not have been possible.

ADMINISTRATION

SCHOOL BOARD

Mr. Joseph Danek, Treasurer; Mr. Fred Gewirtz, Trustee, Mrs. Roscoe Rice, Secretary; Mrs. Carl Grubaugh, Trustee.

We, the students of Chesaning Union School, wish to extend our gratitude to the Chesaning Board of Education who, through their interest, have given our school many fine educational opportunities and have made it one of the best schools of the state for its size.

Our school, and community as well, was saddened by the untimely and sudden death of M. E. Barkman on March 23 who served as president of the board for eight years(1938-46), and gave unselfishly of his time and effort so that we might have this fine school.

Mr. Roy T. Smith was appointed to fill the vacancy resulting from Mr. Barkman's death.

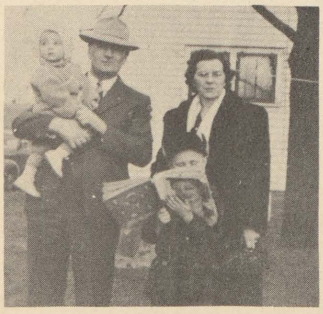
In the high school, Miss Annie Brainerd, later Mrs.Jack Shepard, was called upon to teach ninth grade English and World History. Mrs. Reva Craig taught a few classes until Christmas when ill health forced her to quit teaching.



Mrs. Brownell, who also was forced to resign because of ill health, was replaced by Warren H. Newman, who just returned from three years in the armed services.

Mr. Robert Blue, a former teacher of the Chesaning High School, who was also discharged after three years in the armed services relieved the teaching load during the second semester by taking several eighth grade classes.

CHEER LEADERS

The cheer leaders have a big part to play in the success of an athletic season, and they played their part very well.

This group took over the pep assemblies,which were held frequently before home games, and promoted the cheering on the part of the student body at all the athletic contests.

The cheer leaders are divided into a Senior and Junior group similar to that of a Junior athletic team. The Junior members generally led the cheering for the reserve team games. They are: Blanche Studor, Lorraine McFarlan, Mary Jane Thorpe, Peggy Cole, Doreen Anderson

Our Senior members of this activity--Dorothy Luha, Janet Richardson Doris Schnick and Carol Lintz have done an excellent job of cheer leading this season. We hope to see them back on the job next year.

The team tied for the Central C Championship with Corunna, Ovid, and Elsie, each team winning two games, tying one, and losing one.

The team was undefeated until the last two games when it was weakened through Harold Stewart's inability to play because of an injury.

A majority of scores came through an aerial attack which was made possible by the excellent holding of our strong line.

BASEBALL

Forty candidates, including seven letter winners of last year-Stewart, Danek, Nelson, Philips, Karp, Klump, and Persons reported for baseball this spring. James Larner, who won a letter in 1943, joined the squad having returned to our school after his discharge from the Navy.

With nearly a team of veterans the prospects in baseball looked very promising. The pitching position was the only position where there were no experienced players. Himm Cooper, and Larner were the pitchers for the season.

Coach Ringler divided the squad into a varsity team and reserve team with a separate practice period for each.

The reserve team played six games during the season. It was made up of ninth and tenth graders.

Durand joined the Central C Conference in time to play baseball. The conference which was re-organized this spring now includes Durand, Elsie, Corunna, Perry, Ovid and Chesaning.

TRACK

We had a great deal of interest in track this year with twenty boys taking part in the field and track events. Eight of the boys are Freshmen with some of them showing promise of being good trackmen.

Last year Chesaning entered four players in the state track meet at Lansing. Harold Stewart took third in the half mile, Robert Weigold third in the Broad jump and Joe Mudar tied for sixth in the pole vault. Ed Danek was the fourth member of the team.Robert Weigold and Joe Mudar were graduated last June. Letter winners from last year were: Russell Potter, Robert Weigold, Harold Stewart, Joe Mudar and Ed Danek.

This year's team, which was coached by Mr. Ringler, assisted by Mr. Hood, entered four scheduled meets, one triangular, Chesaning, Corunna and Owosso tenth graders; two dual one with Corunna and the other with Arthur Hill Sophomores, also the Regional in Owosso. Those qualifying in the regional went to the state meet in East Lansing.
